A new look at Chile – Monday 16th October

This month we welcome back Richard Bost who gave a fascinating talk on wines of India last year. Richard has recently been to Chile and travelled the country extensively – discovering great new wines as he went.

We are looking forward to hearing lots more about Chile and tasting a selection of some of the wines he enjoyed. Some familiar names like Montes and some new ones – William Cole “Bill” Limited Edition sounds very promising. We will be tasting Chardonnays – including a wild ferment, Sauvignon Blancs, Pinot Noirs and of course Chile’s eponymous variety Carmenere – and one of these is pretty special if the price is anything to go by. Another very promising evening is in store!

ATTENDANCE NOTIFICATION – FOR OCTOBER PLEASE INFORM GRAHAM COOK

We are planning to make greater use of this and are working on enabling you to register your meeting attendance through the website - hopefully by early next year. And of course you are encouraged to pay your meeting fees and subscription by bank transfer rather than cash or cheque.
